ACCELERATING DISCOVERY

Case No. 2:14-cv-00309

Judge Robert J. Shelby

Plaintiff, Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”), has made an Ex Parte Motion for a Temporary Restraining Order and Other Relief to restrain Defendants American Pension Services, Inc. and Curtis L. DeYoung (collectively, the “Defendants”) from engaging in ongoing violations of the federal securities laws. The Court has considered the Commission’s Memorandum in Support of the Ex Parte Motion for a Temporary Restraining Order and Other Relief, the exhibits filed therewith, and the supporting declarations and documentation, together with the argument of counsel. Based upon the foregoing, the Court makes the following findings:

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action and over Defendants.

2. The Commission has made a sufficient and proper showing in support of the relief granted herein as required by Section 20(b) of the Securities Act of 1933 (the “Securities Act”) [15 U.S.C. § 77t(b)] and Section 21(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”) [15 U.S.C. § 78u(d)] by evidence establishing a prima facie case of and a strong likelihood that the Commission will prevail at trial on the merits and that the Defendants, directly or indirectly, have engaged in and, unless restrained and enjoined by order of this Court, will continue to engage in acts, practices, and courses of business constituting violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act [15 U.S.C. § 77q(a)] and Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act [15 U.S.C. § 78j(b)] and Rule 10b-5 thereunder [17 C.F.R. § 240.10b-5].

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

I.

The Commission’s Ex Parte Motion for a Temporary Restraining Order and Other Relief is granted.

II.

Pending the determination of the Commission’s Motion for a Preliminary Injunction or hearing on the merits, Defendants and their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and accountants, and those persons in active concert or participation with any of them, who receive actual notice of the order by personal service or otherwise, and each of them, are temporarily restrained and enjoined from engaging in the transactions, acts, practices, and courses of business described herein, and from engaging in conduct of similar purport and object in violation of Sections 17(a) of the Securities Act and Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 thereunder.

III.

Pending a preliminary injunction hearing on this matter to be scheduled promptly, the Court hereby orders expedited discovery as detailed below:

- a. Discovery may commence immediately. The parties need not await the exchange of initial disclosures prior to initiating discovery through any other means permitted by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
- b. Depositions may be scheduled on three days written notice to the parties, which notice must be served by facsimile and electronic mail.
- c. The parties must respond to interrogatories within three days of service thereof. Service of interrogatories must be made by facsimile and electronic mail.
- d. The parties must respond to requests for the production of documents and requests for admission within five days of service thereof.

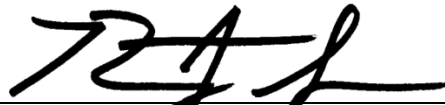

IV.

This Court shall retain jurisdiction over this action for the purposes of implementing and carrying out the terms of all orders and decrees which may be entered herein and to entertain any suitable application or motion for additional relief within the jurisdiction of this Court.

IT IS SO ORDERED, this 24th day of April, 2014, at 5:18 p.m., at Salt Lake City, Utah.
